

Fundamental British values

Alvaston Infant & Nursery School promotes the fundamental British values of democracy, the rule of law, individual liberty, and mutual respect and tolerance of those with different faiths and beliefs.

Through our provision of SMSC, we enable our pupils to:

- Develop their self-knowledge, self-esteem and self-confidence.
- Develop their awareness of right from wrong.
- Begin to learn about the laws in England and to learn to respect the school rules.
- Begin to accept responsibility for their behaviour and to understand how they can contribute positively to the lives of others in our school family, school community and the wider society.
- Celebrate differences and to learn and appreciate their own and others cultures.
- Show respect for other people and their views and opinions.
- Take part in democratic processes and respect how the law is applied in England.
- Gain an understanding of their rights as a child and the freedom to be able to make choices.
- Understand that other people have different faiths and beliefs.
- Learn about discrimination and be aware of the Protected Characteristics.
